STUNNING BLOWS TO FRANCE & GERMANY

Far-right gains in EU election, France calls snap national vote

ASSOCIATED PRESS Brussels, June 10

THE FAR-RIGHT PARTIES made big gains in the European Parliament in election results that rattled the traditional powers and made French President Emmanuel Macron call snap legislative elections.

Millions of Europeans voted for candidates to serve five-year terms in a new European Parliament, the legislative branch of the 27-member trade bloc. Provisional results from the voting that ended Sunday showed the Christian Democrats would have 189 seats, up 13, the Social Democrats 135, down 4 and the pro-business Renew group 83, down 19.

Shock poll rocks euro, French markets

THE EURO FELL while French stocks and bonds tumbled on Monday, following President Emmanuel Macron's decision to call a snap parliamentary election after being trounced in a European Union vote by the far right.

The euro fell by 0.6% to a one-month low of $1.0733 and hit a 21-month trough against sterling of 84.49 pence. French blue-chip stocks dropped 1.6%, led by steep losses in the likes of lenders such as BNP Paribas and Societe Generale.

'ECB cut doesn't put rate on linear declining path'

THE EUROPEAN CENTRAL Bank must stay cautious, and last week's cut in borrowing costs won't necessarily be followed by further rapid moves, according to President Christine Lagarde.

"We've made the appropriate decision, but it doesn't mean interest rates are on a linear declining path," she said in an interview with leading European newspapers. "There might be periods where we hold rates again."

"At every step of the way, not only when we have new projections, we will reassess," she said according to a pre-release by Handelsblatt on Monday. The interview was also published in Expansion, Il Sole 24 Ore and Les Echos. The ECB recently delivered a rate reduction, a move that jarred both with its higher projections for inflation and with a stronger wage growth.

Gantz quits Israel govt in dispute with Netanyahu

ALISA ODENHEIMER & GALIL ALTSTEIN June 10

BENNY GANTZ RESIGNED from Israel's emergency government and called for elections, criticising Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu over his handling of the war against Hamas.

Gantz, said in a news conference that the PM was preventing Israel from achieving "true victory" in its war against Hamas

The departure of Gantz, a Netanyahu rival and former general, won't cause the ruling coalition to collapse. But it deprives the government of a moderate voice during the war that began after Hamas's October 7 attack, leaving Netanyahu more reliant on his right-wing coalition partners.

Blinken urges West Asia leaders to press Hamas for Gaza truce

US SECRETARY OF State Antony Blinken said on Monday, as he began a trip to West Asia, that he was urging leaders in the region to press Hamas to say yes to a ceasefire proposal to halt fighting in Gaza.

Pak cuts interest rate for first time in four years

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Islamabad, June 10

PAKISTAN'S CENTRAL BANK on Monday cut interest rate by 1.5 per cent points to 20.5% amidst improvement in inflation. In a statement, the State Bank of Pakistan (SBP) said that its Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) had met earlier on Monday and reviewed the current economic developments, highlighting "better than anticipated" decline in inflation for May.

"Notwithstanding these risks and today's decision, the Committee noted that the cumulative impact of earlier monetary tightening is expected to keep inflationary pressures in check," according to the policy statement. The SBP noted that the real interest rate still remains significantly positive, which is important to continue guiding inflation to the medium-term target of 5-7%.

Gantz, one in a three-person war cabinet that included Netanyahu, said in a televised news conference that the prime minister was preventing Israel from achieving "true victory" in its war against Hamas, saying that "fateful, strategic decisions are met with hesitancy and procrastination due to political considerations." He called for an election in the fall, as Israel marks the first anniversary of the attacks, "that will lead to a true unity government." "Israel is in an existential war on multiple fronts," Netanyahu wrote on
